ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF COPPER MOUNTAIN COLLEGE

Regular Meeting Agenda | 17 December 2021 | 1:30PM | Room 103

ASCMC on any matter of concern that is not stated on the agenda. A time limit of three (3) minutes per speaker and fifteen (15) minutes per topic shall be observed. The law does not permit any action to be taken, nor extended discussion of any items not on the agenda.

Chelsi states that the spring kickoff date is february 3. She encouraged us to join and volunteer. It's from 10am-2pm. There will be welcome kits and games. Lily states that she is making a list of everyone's email to make it easier. Kristian states that Sandy Smith reached out and there will be a table for athletics. There will be shirts, sweaters, etc. available. Sandy is interested in having people there. Jane Abel thanked members for their work and is excited for next semester. She states that student voice is important for things such as grants, meetings, etc.

II. NEW BUSINESS

III. OLD BUSINESS

A. Cactus Chronicles Update | Discussion | Lucas States

Lucas states you can reach out to him for help if they continue with the newsletter. There was discussion about the newsletter for next semester as Lucas will not be here. Lily mentioned there should be more advertising for the newsletter. Marissa stated that we should have a newsletter for February for the kickoff. Joe would like to chair an ad hoc committee to discuss the future of the newsletter. Leo and Kristian are interested in joining the ad hoc. They are looking to meet Wednesday 29 at 9:30.

B. SAC Reform | Discussion/Action | Chelsi Chastain

Chelsi states that she has ideas for couches that she has passed around. ASCMC will make a recommendation for items, which will then go through facilities that they will then discuss and then be forwarded to budget advisory, and then go to college council and then hopefully be approved for purpose.

Kristian and Lily proposed making a poll, Lucas said we could use the poll to use the most voted answer to then narrow it down. Chelsi notes that we could not get a poll out until spring and Joe states that we should get going on this idea as the approval process is so lengthy.

Leo asked about when the next meeting will be to discuss this idea as well. Members agreed to create an ad hoc to further discuss this. Chelsi proposed meeting the first Friday of January.

Joe states that we can give the ad hoc power to vote on the couches.

Facilities will meet on January 21. Chelsi proposes meeting twice to discuss the couches and then writing up a proposal.

Chelsi states that there may be a need for air fresheners. She would like there to be an individual budget for air freshener. Marissa states that this may be something that could be possible as the academic senate is discussing air filtration. Chelsi asked if it is possible to get an air purification item, jane states that it may be a good use of COVID-19 relief funds as it benefits students, especially those who have sensory or allergy sensitivities.

Lily motioned to create an ad hoc committee that will discuss the student activity reformation. In the ad hoc committee they will have the power to vote on couches and any proposals. Kristian M. will chair the ad hoc.

Roll call vote:

There was a unanimous vote to approve this motion.

Chelsi states she is working with Jane to create sustainable food and food access in the student activity center. This comes about after discussions of food equality and especially for students who are on campus at night. Chelsi states food will be available the first day of spring semester in the student activity center. Chelsi encourages us to tell other students about this topic.

Jane states that there will be healthy, nutritious foods. Jane notes that this food will be available to faculty as well since there is a concern there.

Lily asked if we could work with faculty to address all concerns by both students and staff/faculty.

Joe proposes making this a standing item on the next agenda.

Kristian asked Chelsi if she would like to collaborate on sending an email to faculty about discussing this topic further.

C. Club Handbooks Ad Hoc | Discussion/Update | Kristian Murin-Nies

Kristian states that Jane helped clarify about student conduct. They discussed club actions and leaders. They discerned between individual and club actions. They clarified the conduct on clubs being disbanded. She states that language was changed to be clear, direct, as well as friendly towards students.

Marissa states she will discuss clubs with faculty and try to encourage them to join clubs as advisors.

D. Winter Formal | Discussion/Action | Leila Smith

There was an ad hoc to discuss snacks, snacks will be ordered through sam's club and kristian M will pick the snacks up.

Lily and lucas will pick up gift bags to put snacks in for students.

Marissa suggested adding hand sanitizer available for students. Lily suggested providing sani-wipes as well as bottles of hand sanitizers around the room.

Lily is making copies of itemized receipts and adding them to a form.

Marissa, Joe, and Marshall are still working on finding a DJ.

Lily states if we don't hear from anyone by Monday we will borrow speakers from facilities and provide our own music.

Kristian has found a DJ from the palms that states they could DJ.

Marissa states that she will reach out to security for us as well as look into PPE.

Marissa states that it is ASCMC responsibility to enforce COVID-19 precautions such as wearing a mask.
