What can be changed – Planning further in advance, more marketing. More buy in from faculty and cross promotion. More social media and incentives for each events along with putting that on the flyers. Student in planning meeting to help with consistency. More delegating of tasks! A little bit earlier in the day, more afternoon events. Use ICC to help with promotion and participation also use ICC point system to incentivize the clubs to help out. Hashtags or photo contests in the future to engage online students. Take more photos and post more on social media.

- E. Elections - thank you to all people are who attended the meeting today – this is a good example of a meeting. We are here to answer questions, please ask away. Sabrina asked if she could waive the stipend if she is elected. If elected, marissa said she can explore this further. No current treasurer applicants, might need to appoint someone as a treasurer is needed. We encourage everyone to be a senator if they are not elected to the exec board. A brief description of each position was listed. Other committees are options for leadership experience. Chelsi went over the election timeline Which is as follows
- May 2nd through 6th – elections on campus experience canvas
 - On or before May 11th – positions will be announced to candidates
 - May 12th Board of trustee meeting 3-5pm – would be great if everyone can make it
 - May 13th – Announced to student board at dance and on canvas
- Will email out the bylaws for clarity.
Chelsi and Marissa introduced themselves
Students first, always. We want you to be successful always.
Discussions about new eboard about how many meetings will be brown act compliant, will be discussed going forward.
