In Shantyman 101, you'll join shantyman Steve "Shanghai" Brown for a memorable voyage that will take you back to the days of working sail, though a musical - and historical - journey. You'll learn songs dating back as far as 500 years, but mostly from the mid-1800s. Songs from the packet trade, the clipper ship trade, from men-o-war, whaling ships and the fishing fleets, and even songs about slave ships, will all be sung and discussed. There will be songs of voyages, whaling, devastating storms, grog, and the most dangerous pirates of all - the women of New York! In Shantyman 101, you'll learn about shanties and sea music as a form of oral and social history, and you'll learn, just as the sailors did, by singing.
